

JOB TITLE:	Communications Consultant
TYPE OF CONTRACT:	Regular CST
UNIT/DIVISION:	WFP Japan Office
DUTY STATION (City, Country):	Tokyo/Japan (The incumbent must already live within commuting distance of WFP Japan Office.)
DURATION:	From 19 September to 31 Dec 2017 (with possibility of extension)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE OF THE ASSIGNMENT:

Reporting line: 1st supervisor: Communications Officer, 2nd supervisor: Director, WFP Japan Office

Purpose: To support WFP Japan's key missions and initiatives, as well as joint communications/fundraising activities with the Japan Association for WFP

ACCOUNTABILITIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Work on WFP media/advocacy campaigns;
2. Organize media interviews and press events;
3. Assist in the correct addressing of media queries;
4. Follow up on requests for information from media and donors;
5. Prepare briefing papers and talking points as required;
6. Produce information and audiovisual materials, brochures and other documentation;
7. Translate press releases, web stories and other public documents;
8. Actively contribute to the maintenance of the WFP website and social media channels;
9. Keep accurate records of media activities;
10. Produce reports on WFP communications/fundraising activities as required;
11. Perform other related duties as required.

DELIVERABLES AT THE END OF THE CONTRACT:

.....

QUALIFICATIONS & EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:

Education: Advanced university degree or university degree with experience and advanced training/courses in one or more of the following disciplines: journalism, international relations, communications or other relevant fields, or relevant professional experience.

Experience: About 3 to 5 years of work experience in communications or related fields.

Knowledge & Skills: Experience utilising computers, including word processing, spreadsheet and other software packages.

Languages: Excellent knowledge of English and Japanese (Level C).
